

The Black History Art and Humanities Program Presents the Great Blacks in Wax Figures

BLACK HISTORY

MCINTOSH ART ASSOCIATION
ARTS & HUMANITIES
PROGRAM

Six figures from the National Great Blacks in Wax Museum in Baltimore, Maryland will be on display. The proceeds generated by the admission charge to the exhibits and grand finale program on Saturday, February 24, 2018, will be used for students to participate in summer art camps at the McIntosh Art Association.

Speaker

- Dr. Joanne Martin - Curator of the National Great Blacks in Wax Museum

Featuring

- Savannah State Wesleyan Gospel Choir
- The McIntosh Shouters
- Emcee, Mrs. Loretta Lotson

Admission $15

(Includes carryout dinner)

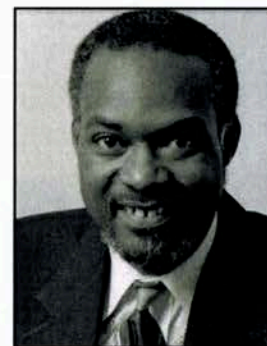

Call (912) 437-7711 or come by the museum at 404 North Way, Darien.

Call Ethel Wilson at (912) 269-2045 for additional information.

There will also be a reception with Dr. Joanne Martin, curator of the museum, at the McIntosh Art Association on Friday night, from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Bessie Coleman
(Pilot)

Earl Shinhoster
(Civil Rights Leader)

February 24, 2018 • 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

*McIntosh County Academy • Hwy. 17, Darien
Archie B. Myers, Sr. Fine Arts Center*